

Name: _____

Subject: Themes - Holidays and months

Date: _____

Sheet: Father's Day

Underline the correct spelling of the word in brackets to complete the rhyme.

I Think My Dad is Dracula

I think my dad is Dracula.
I know that sounds (insane, insain, insanee) but (lissen, listen, lissten) for a moment and allow me to (explaine, explane, explain).

We don't live in a (cassle, castle, kastle),
and we never sleep in (caves, kaves, cavves).
But, still, there's something (weard, weird, weerd)
about the way my dad (bihaves, beehaves, behaves).

I never see him go out
in the (datetime, daytime, daythyme) when it's light.
He (sleeps, sleaps, sleps) all day till evening,
then he leaves the house at night.

He comes home in the (mornin, moorning, morning)
saying, "Man, I'm really dead!"
He (kises, kisses, kizzes) us goodnight, and then by (sunrize, sunrisa, sunrise) he's in bed.

My mum heard my (suspicion, suspishion, suspicien)
and she said, "You're not (two, too, to) swift.
Your father's not a (vampire, vanpire, vampiree).
He just works the (grafeyard, graveyard, graaveyard) shift."

-- Kenn Nesbitt

Copyright © 2014 All Rights Reserved - www.poetry4kids.com

Answer the questions below.

1. Give two reasons why the author thinks his dad might be Dracula.

2. When does Dad leave the house? _____

3. What does Dad say when he arrives home? _____

4. What is another word for 'insane'? _____

5. What is Dad's job? _____