

JOBS

1. Match the jobs and their definitions and make sentences using the present simple.

a lawyer	to be responsible for sales or personnel staff
an engineer	to represent people with legal problems
a carpenter	to install and repair water pipes and so on a plumber	to design buildings
an electrician	to plan the building of roads, bridges, machines, etc.
an accountant	to make things using wood
a sales / personnel manager	to install and repair electrical things
an architect	to treat and look after people who are sick or injured
a nurse	to control the financial situation of people and companies

Example: An architect is someone who designs buildings

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. Write down one job from the box that would probably be impossible for these people.

a firefighter	a carpenter	a mechanic	a pilot	a vet
a sailor	an accountant	a surgeon	a police officer	a soldier

Lisa didn't go to university, so she can't be a doctor.
 Sam can't see very well, so he can't be _____.
 Mandy is always seasick on a boat, so she can't be _____.
 Jim understands nothing about cars, so he can't be _____.
 Ian doesn't want to work in the evening or at night, so he can't be _____.
 Jill is afraid of dogs, so she can't be _____.
 Sarah is afraid of heights and high places, so she can't be _____.
 Timothy is terrible at numbers and maths, so he can't be _____.
 Eve doesn't like to see blood, so she can't be a _____.
 Michael is a pacifist, so he can't be a _____.

And you, what would you like to be, when you grow up ?